This contract is for the personal services of the band Déjà Vu for the performance as previously discussed. The undersigned employer (Contact for performance) and the band members of Déjà Vu agree and contract as follows:

1. This contract constitutes a complete and binding agreement between the employer and the band members. AGENTS act only as agents, and assume no responsibility as between the employer and band members when an Agent is used for bookings.
2. The employer agrees to be responsible for harm, loss, or damage of any kind to band member's person or property while located at the place of performance. Band members are responsible for knowing the limitations of their equipment. Band members will not hold the employer responsible for damages caused by misuse of personal equipment by any member or crew working for Déjà Vu. The employer agrees that in acts of nature, power surges, misconduct of patrons, or anything beyond the bands control, the band will be reimbursed for any damage or loss of equipment.
3. In case of breach of this contract by the employer, the employer agrees to pay the amount stated in the FEES FOR PERFORMANCE section above as mitigated damages, plus reasonable attorney's fees, court costs, and legal interest.
4. The employer shall provide at least 5 separate 20amp circuits with nothing else running on these specified outlets. The employer will also need to have a stage area of at least 8 feet deep by 16 feet wide for the band to utilize with sound and lighting equipment. If the power requirements are not available, the band will need granted access to either a 220 type kitchen outlet or direct access to the panel/fuse box of the establishment so that they may connect their own adequate power box.
